“Tis a shame I'm just hearing about your passing even though I've tried many times in the past three months (but to no avail) calling within the band of my loyal relatives.

Nevertheless: To one of the coolest, jovial, relaxed and humorous relative I know Aunt Agnes.. I will always miss your smile, laughter and our favorite, old TV shows like Sanford and son, Gilligans Island, Gunsmoke, and all the other line ups exhibited on METV! LOL!

Heaven has open wide it's gates to welcome you to greet Jesus the name above all names accompanied by Grandma and her twin sister Aunt Gladys! Take your bow and rest well knowing that the work you've done here shall always speak for you and your children, Gary, Carl, Linda and Timothy! My prayers are never ceasing for the hope of Glory awaiting you and remember Philippians 1:21

....To live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Overwhelmingly,

Aunt Agnes has left behind children, grands and great grands who have inherited her quite strength and grace. During this time of mourning, we will continue to draw comfort from God's sure promise of a resurrection as set forth in the Bible. Her children will continue to live up to her legacy of dignity, love and compassion. Aunt Agnes was one of the nicest people one could ever hope to meet. She was a huge supporter of her family; and there wasn't anything she wouldn't do for the people she loved. They don't come any better than her.

*“For those whom God resurrects, death is not the end of everything.”
Until we meet you in Paradise.*
