Words could never adequately convey what our hearts feel from the loss of our dear sister, Belinda. All we can do is pray and believe that God shall strengthen us during this difficult time. And knowing Belinda like we do, family, she would ask that we find comfort in this poem:

"Miss Me - But Let Me Go!"

*When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go!*

*Sorrowfully submitted,
Gregory & Janette Brunson*
