“ We worked together picking tobacco. At lunch time someone the farmer we worked for said anybody want something from the store. Half of the field might say bring back a soda spice ham and cinnamon roll the other a soda bologna and honey bun. Carl would be last to say I want a soda spice ham and a sweet roll. We started laughing they both are sweet. From that day as boys we called Carl Sweet Roll. I last saw him 10 years back at the old Portal High Gym. In our fifties called him Sweet Roll. Carl smile and laugh he said it's so good to see you Jerry.

Carl truly miss you. And to your family God bless and heal everyone
