“ Your sudden death came as a rude shock. We did not expect it and wish we had more time to continue to appreciate you. There are so many things to be said about Uncle David: he was an uncle in a million; he was humble, kind, loving, caring and good at heart and soul; he was also a man of integrity; he was a man who believed in the Almighty; he was someone we admired and respected. Although he is gone, he will never be far from our hearts. The memories we've made will go on forever.

May Our Lord comfort and sustain your son and his family, your sister and brothers, nieces and nephews, friends and loved ones now and always. May God Almighty keep you safe resting in perfect peace till resurrection day, Amen.
