“ May the God of comfort be with both family during this time of sorrow. We will certainly miss Evelyn's smiling face and her words of wisdom. She could make the best chewy bread. I have great memories of the times we spent talking. RIP my sister

“ I, Joyce Major & We here @ Coastal Regional Commission of Ga & Coastal Regional Coaches will forever remember Mrs Evelyn Rozier. She was one of my first clients that I transported. Was very nice, well dressed at all times & an inspiration to others. I'll never forget your love of my inspirational music I play for clients. She would sometimes say, "Joyce, can you play that one for me again... & I always would... Gone but not forgotten..

“ Evelyn, my heart is heavy, things in Statesboro will not be the same, we shared a lot together, you were so special to me and my family I will never forget you how you prayed with me and for me, how you loved unconditionally, never judging, always preaching the word and living up to it you were and amazing Lady. To Kermit, Shayla, Marquita she ok now, she will rest in our memories watching over us from day to day, stay strong, look to our Heavenly father for strength to go on. Can't imagine not see her anymore but I know God knows best, I love you Evelyn Rozier, hope a seat for me while singing them hymns in that Heavenly choir... Tina
