I know we not suppose to take death as a big shock cause sure as we live surely we will die but this seeing his name on the obituary at hills caused my heart to pound as if it was jumping out this really hurt cause I had no idea he was even sick the last time I was at our church he had sent word that he wasn't feeling so good that Sunday and that he wouldn't be attending services but my God I had no idea he was close to this point but as I said death we all will go I hope he passed in peace I feel deeply he and God had a close relationship and when God called him Saturday only cousin Freddie heard God come home faithful servant may My family the grants keep strong and be loving to each other love all of you
