“ The Burns family has the Brady family's deepest sympathy at this time with the loss of our good friend, Mr. George Burns. He was an outstanding person of impeccable taste in clothing since he was always sporting his Kangol cap to match his outfit. He was a very frequent "every two week" cycle customer of our car wash, Brady's Auto Clean-Up, for many years. We grew to love and respect both he and his loving wife, Pearl Burns, and loved to just talk about this and that with Mr. Burns and get him to laugh his signature unique laugh. I, Kevin Brady, remember the last time I talked with Mr. George at length at our local post office, and we got to talking about my wife and I's daycare. Well, I spoke of my wife using the word "wife" and Mr. George laughed and said, "Wife? When did this happen? (Laugh)" And I said after looking at my watch "Just thirty minutes ago." See, my wife and I had just got married at 10 o'clock that morning of Dec. 22, 2006, and I seen Mr. Burns at 10:30 at the post office. So long Mr. George Burns! We're really gonna miss you!
