We all were a team at the nsg home and it was some days we had difference of understandings but we.d all mend things back together. Which is how it goes on these jobs but no madness or harsh feelings we all love one another and kept it moving. And she.d always talk about meshia I remember her as a baby to a toddler and I got to where I'd always ask her about meshia all the time I know she's grown now and maybe one day I'll meet her and her daughters you all stay close and show love to each other everyday as if it were your last don't turn one each other get mad sometimes yes but mend and stay close your mom has gone and you guys keep up her ledgency

“ Sending prayers and heartfelt condolences to the family. When I was little, I spent so much time with her back in Boston. I will miss seeing her cheerful smile and the feeling of her warm hugs she'd give whenever I visited Statesboro.
