“❤️ Grandma! I have no idea where to start. I was definitely not ready for you to go, but I can't be selfish you fought your battle you did everything you can to stay on this earth to let us see that beautiful smile of yours everyday. Even though you hurt so bad on the inside you never showed it on the outside. You will always say I'm OK baby, knowing you wasn't. You filled my life with so much excitement and joy, hearing your laugh definitely tickled my giggle box simply because it was laughter of joy, it was a laugh that made whatever we was laughing about so much more funnier. The dancing we did will forever be a moment for me to cherish, tell your buddies in heaven we danced the night away ALL THE TIME plenty nights LOL!!😭 I can go on and on but my memories are our memories and I will forever cherish each and every one of them. I will always be your pumpkin, I'm definitely going to miss GRANDMA❤️ Your unconditional love and a pure heart of gold.

I love you.

Tina aka pumpkin ❤️👍🍫

“ I only have fond memories of Ms. Ida. I was her caregiver for quite some time. We had become very good friends. She loved to ride and look at flowers. I will truly miss her. To the Wigfall family my husband and I send our deepest condolences. Always remember you will see her again. Revelation:21:3,4 will bring much comfort at this time. Mr.&Mrs William(Effie) Smith.
