“ So sorry for your loss. I didn't personally know you son but when I seen how young he was I felt compelled to write.. Death at any age is very hard to deal, but when we lose someone who haven't lived their life to its potential its devastating. You are not alone during this time of sorrow and pain. May God give your family the strength and comfort to help you endure this loss. As you remember your beloved one, may in the memories that you shared sustain you. Please accept my sincere condolences. Isaiah 41:10

“ I taught James at William James Middle School and I have fond memories of him. I can remember going to a tennis match. It was fun to watch him play tennis and see his mother as well as his sisters and brothers supporting his game. I am saddened about all of this and I will miss James. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ I remember the last day I saw you the beginning of May right before I went to work. You was fresh in your red and white; I said hey Pj, you said wassup. I was in a rush so I couldn't hug you like I wanted to. You was smiling ear to ear that day and every time I think about you I think about that. It's crazy how the ones you thought was your friends would switch on you. I wish we could go and relive those gathers together on Grady st. Me and Tamee talked about you every time she came around. Every time Tamee popped up at the house, I knew you was close by.. I'm going to miss smoking with y'all and just laughing about the lil things we use to peep.. Running into you and asking how you doing and when Tamee coming back round.. I mour in silence but I'm going to hate to see you in that casket.. Y'all was my other family and always keep it real... FlyHighJrand continue to watch over those who made sure you was straight.. My condonlces to your family... ”
