“ Johnny and I started school together, first at his mother's kindergarten and finally we graduated from Statesboro High in 1974. We grew up in the same community. I spoke with him about two weeks before his transistion, we laughed like old times, we discussed his illness and we concluded we were going to pray and speak life. Well Johnny you just beginning life, peacefully in the presence of our Lord. Rest well, I plan to see you in the morning. My sincere condolences to Modestine and all.his family.

Johnny the last memory we shared in the Boro was at our 50th class reunion of 1974 when you kicked up a move on the dance floor making everyone laugh ,the sense of humor you always shared on Facebook my friend will be missed now my friend you have gained your wings, time to rest in the bosom of our lord and savior from this day forth when I hear the clouds rumbling I'll be saying Johnny is up there kicking up some moves are telling some jokes making them laugh with tears of joy falling on us.

R.I.P. MY FRIEND
