“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Newkirt family and also share a comforting promise from Revelation 21:3-4 where God will very soon wipe out all tears from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ LaTonya, you just don't know how a big impact you death have left on me. Words really don't express how much. I really going to miss you. I am going to miss setting on the porch with you and our long, long talks. I can pass my housing coming from mom's house and can see you sitting on the porch, your favorite place. I know that you looked up to me all of your short life. You know that I was always there for you and a listening ear when you needed it. You were always full of smiles and laughter. No one really knew your wisdom. Datwan going to also miss you. As you probably know, he is really taken your death hard. I told him that you are in a better place now and absent from the body means that you are present with the Lord. He is really to young to understand but he will someday. I hope that time gets better for him and I. So, I am going to let you rest now Tonya so that you may rest in peace..love ya and I will never forget you my friend.
