To the children of Mr. Brown. As my dad told me no one will ever love you like a parent. To have a father that loves you unconditional is one of the most beautiful gifts that God gives. When they pass you can stay in that dark place or you can allow the love and the memories to make a lasting impression on your heart and continue to live. When grief comes let the memories of your love one explode in your heart, so that you may keep him near in mind and spirit.
