Great young man! My prayers are with the family. Orlando was the only one of my former kids who grew up and treated us. I will never forget his special he made us feel when we came out to support him at the Diner and he pulled out his debit card and covered our meal.

“ Pookie I miss you so much and I am so proud to be your uncle. I'm doing my best to stay strong and my head but it's so hard. I never thought the day after my car accident it would be my last time talking to you. You was my little brother and my nephew. One of proudest day in my life when you told me you look up to me. I felted like I was on up of the world when you told me that. So many memories of you nephew. I love and miss you so much. I am so proud of man you became and are. R.I.P Orlando Sandez Forsha Rock GOD has one of his angel now! You are gone but never forgotten 🥺🥺🥺🥺
