“ To the Scott Family,

Many friends share your sorrow and lost of our beloved friend. Shirley Ann was a fun and loving person. I am reminded of those wonderful years growing up in Butler Projects where we were all family. We called ourselves the Butler Project Girls. There were never a dull moment skating, playing softball, basketball, football, dancing at Mrs. Brock store and having a parade in the project. I am reminded the time we had a talent show in Butler Project. Shirley Ann, Pedetha Grant and Beverly Brown were the supreme. Believe it or not, they sounded like Diana Ross and the Supreme. Of course, Shirley Ann was Diana Ross. Those were the good days of laughter and joy. Shirley, you will definitely be missed on this side of Jordan but you are rejoicing with the angels on the other side of Jordan. Rip!
