“ *I remember seeing him in the gym about 4yrs ago or so. I needed someone to play one of the games with me. Coach asked him and he did, It surprised me because he was new here and was willing to play a game with me a transgender. After that we both found out we was both from the 912 area, my self Metter GA. And that he new some of my people. I said all that to say this he's was a good man with a heart of gold. From my self TCQ and his other family of Gdc will never forget you aka stick. Rest n peace our friend, Rest in Peace
To your family we send all our condolences and love.
